CEO MESSAGE

"Strive not to be a success but rather to be of value". These words of Albert Einstein are relevant these days. Success at any cost is the driving force of this generation. It should not be at the cost of ethics and values. Grades and ranks are desirable. However a topper without character is of less value to the society.

Vision and Mission statements of our school are based on the core values. Parents and teachers are collaborators in this noble exercise of molding a generation that upholds values.

I seek your support and cooperation. May God bless our Institution.
